

Unraveling Implicit Bias and Leading for Equity

Lead • Develop • Support

Professional Development Series

Participants in this session will engage in powerful learning experiences designed to help them explore implicit bias and leading for equity. Topics that will be addressed include: common language for discussing issues of equity and cultural competence; understanding and exploring the cycle of socialization; exploring the fabric of oppression and power puzzle to better understand the multi-identities we serve and how society impacts each; unraveling implicit bias and what can be done about it; and ways leaders can foster equity-centered organizations.
